

CREDITS

Off-highway Vehicles in Minnesota December 1999

Written by Minnesotans for Responsible Recreation with contributions from:
Virginia Borden, Jeff Brown, Jamie L. Juenemann, Will Rhodes and Dan Rosenthal

Photographs by:
Jeff Brown, John Kreuz, Tom McMillin, John Reynolds

This report will be made available via the internet.
Please point your browser to ~~MRR~~

Paper copies of this report are available for a fee (includes shipping charges) from
Minnesotans for Responsible Recreation
Box 111
Duluth, MN 55801

Minnesotans for Responsible Recreation
Copyright © 1999

CONTACTS:

For general information about this report and to inquire about membership, contact:

Minnesotans for Responsible Recreation

"Minnesota's Voice for Peace and Quiet"

Box 111

Duluth, MN 55801

MRR@cpinternet.com

~~MRR~~

Minnesotans for Responsible Recreation was founded in 1996 to give a united voice to those concerned about the noise, fumes, danger to others and environmental damage created by snowmobiles, off-highway vehicles (OHVs) and high-powered watercraft. It is MRR's mission to restore, protect, and preserve peace and quiet, fresh air, personal safety and healthy environments on Minnesota's trails and waterways for future generations.